Scrutiny Coach: Cllr T Irwin (Cllrs S Smart proposed, P Claridge seconded) This is a new post, the aim of it is to be aware of regulations and rules and to raise any queries that may arise. Cllrs G Tucker and G Rogers supported this. Cllr T Keat registered his disagreement regarding the creation of this post, the reason being that there is already too much office work being done.

Website Action Team: Cllrs S Smart and P Claridge agreed to continue in updating, editing and running the website. Cllr J Best will assist.

County Councillors

Councillor Batters had provided a copy of his annual report for 2015/16. There was little to report. He had addressed the concerns of residents at Little Downs regarding parking of vehicles. Cllr S Smart raised the topic of the Cornwall Council map. Reported an issue with one of the drains in the road.

Public Session

Mr Bonker thanked the Councillors for adding relevant documents to the website. He mentioned correspondence through Mr Mansell which raised the issue of mediation. Mr Bonker said he welcomed this and he had agreed to go along with Mr Mansell's suggestion.

Cllr Batter left the meeting

Mr Martin gave a report of the A30 dualling. Cllr T Keat pointed out that trees may need to be cut back along the proposed night time route which will operate on the 5 nights when the A30 is closed. Mr Martin agreed to look into this. Cllr G Rogers asked about the cycle signs and would Highways repair/replace them once the roadworks are completed. Cllr Smart asked about the planting/landscaping once the roadworks are complete.

092/16 Apologies

Mr Ridgewell.

093/16 Declaration of Interest
